

DECLARATION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

This Declaration is consistent with ICMJE guidelines

Section 1. Author

First name  Last name  Date

Are you a corresponding author?      Yes      No

If not, please specify the corresponding author here

Title of the Article

Section 2. Conflict of Interests

Did you personally or the research institution you are affiliated with receive financial support or service from a third party (government, commercial organization, non-governmental fund or other research institution) when conducting the study or preparing the manuscript?

Yes      No

If yes, please provide further information below. Types of support: grants, honoraria, non-financial support (equipment or the like) , other types (please provide more details).

Name of sponsor

Types of support

Section 3. Conflict of interest in the submitted work

Have you participated in similar studies (in terms of their subject matter) over the last 3 years and have you or the institution you are affiliated with ever received structured financial support for those studies? Here is how to fill in the boxes below. For example, if the study described in your manuscript aimed to investigate growth factor in lung cancer, please provide a list of all studies on lung cancer you were ever involved in. If the results of your research were used to manufacture a new product, you can leave out grant sources but must name the manufacturer who requested such product.

Name of study	Sponsor and support type

Section 4. Intellectual property

List patents and other intellectual property related to the subject of your research and specify their current state (pending, licensed, valid, royalty).

Name of patent	Current state

Section 5. Other conflicts of interests

Do you have any other conflicts of interests?

Yes

No

Signature